

PIZZAIOLI MEAL BREAK INFORMATION

In accordance with California’s Industrial Welfare Commission Order No. 4-2001, Section 11, an employee working more than five (5) hours in a workday must take an unpaid meal break of at least 30 minutes. However, the meal break may be waived by mutual consent of the employee and employer if the workday does not exceed six (6) hours.

If you wish to waive your 30-minute unpaid meal break, please forward the completed waiver to the PAIRE office with your timesheet for the effective pay period. The waiver will be in effect until the employee decides to revoke the agreement.

MEAL BREAK WAIVER

In accordance with California’s Industrial Welfare Commission Order No. 4-2001, Section 11, I am requesting a waiver of my right to an unpaid 30-minute meal break when my workday will be completed in six (6) hours or less.

I understand that:

1. I may waive my 30-minute unpaid meal break only when my workday will be completed in six (6) hours or less.
2. In order for this waiver to be valid, a representative from the HR/Payroll department must also authorize the waiver in writing by signing below.
3. I may revoke this agreement to waive my meal break at any time by signing this form as indicated below.
4. This waiver will be maintained in the Pizzaioli office.

EMPLOYEE CONSENT:

_____

Employee’s Name (Print)

_____

Employee’s Signature

_____

Effective Date

REVOCACTION: I hereby revoke this waiver.

_____

Employee’s Signature

_____

Date